Position Summary

HealthiPASS, Inc has an opening for a Sr. Software Engineer position. Requirements: Master's degree or equivalent in computer science or related field along with 1 year of relevant experience exclusively in design and develop the cost estimation and claim filing solution. Experience to include therein 6 months of working with various APIs and in an agile sprint pace using healthcare and insurance industry standards.

Responsibilities

Responsible for technical design, unit testing, scalable solution development and best practices around healthcare application lifecycle management. Plan and execute software development cycles and design and develop cost estimation and claim filing solution in healthcare insurance industries. Implement additional and/or modify existing agile principles and drive a deeply agile culture. Provide technical expertise on critical back end and infrastructure work streams and initiatives. Must have a broad knowledge of cyber security methods and technologies across the healthcare industry.

Location

Thornton, CO. 40 hrs. Telecommuting or remote work location in any state is permitted.

How to Apply

Mail resumes to: Attn: VP HR, 13346 Lafayette Way, Thornton, CO 80241 or email claudia.benitez@spherecommerce.com.